3. ID 15-0957 Joint Council-Human Relations Commission Resolution Adopting Changes to the Complaint Review Committee As Recommended By the CRC Enhancement Committee

Councilmember Abuzuaite stated that the item had been adopted unanimously by the Human Relations Commission on Thursday.

Assistant City Manager Reid spoke to the item; stated he had forwarded information to Council regarding the history of the item; and outlined what the Committee was being asked to do.

Mayor Pro-Tem Johnson voiced appreciation for information that was forwarded to members.

Councilmember Wilkins referenced discussions regarding changing the name; and inquired if the committee would review fair housing cases.

City Attorney Tom Carruthers responded that the proposed committee would not include fair housing issues; that the current committee makeup would continue to hear fair housing issues; spoke to the specialized training for the committee; voiced that staff was recommending that Council as a whole consider the name change; and explained the process that would be used through the committee system.

Assistant City Manager Reid confirmed that staff was not opposed to including the word 'community' in the committee name.

Councilmember Wilkins voiced concerns for the changes in meeting locations and times; asked what the advantage was to changing locations; and stated he would vote to move the item to Council with some of the observations he had made for discussion at that time.

Assistant City Manager Reid responded that this would allow the committee to go into closed session which would not be open to the public; and that the alternate locations and times would allow the Committee to have educational public meetings prior to going into closed session.

Discussion took place regarding placing the item on the City's legislative agenda; pursuing the legislative bill in the 2016 Short Session; and things that were discovered during the 2015 Legislative Session.

Councilmember Wilkins commended staff for their work on the bill; voiced concern with a possible amendment four months down the road should the legislative bill be adopted; and spoke to the goal of the legislation.

Councilmember Abuzuaiter interjected that the community had waited over a year for Council to move forward; reiterated it would not be prudent to delay any longer; stated this was a good way to move forward; and recognized Human Relations Commission member David Wils in the audience.

Councilmember Wilkins confirmed the City would pursue legislative action; and stated that Zac Engle had been appointed the Chair of the Human Relations Commission.

Moved by Mayor Pro-Tem Johnson, seconded by Chairperson Abuzuaiter, to refer the resolution to Council. The motion carried on the following roll call vote:
