Councilmember Abuizuaite thanked the FJC for all they did; reminded everyone that the purple tree lighting had taken place; and encouraged people to spread awareness of domestic violence.

Councilmember Kennedy congratulated them for the impact their work had in the community; referenced being on an advisory board for domestic violence; and spoke to the initiatives in place to assist with decreasing the statistics.

Moved by Councilmember Hightower, seconded by Councilmember Thurm, to adopt the resolution. The motion carried on the following roll call vote:

Ayes, 9 - Nancy Vaughan, Yvonne J. Johnson, Marikay Abuzuaiter, Sharon M. Hightower, Nancy Hoffmann, Michelle Kennedy, Justin Outling, Tammi Thurm and Goldie F. Wells

246-18 RESOLUTION DECLARING THE MONTH OF OCTOBER AS DOMESTIC VIOLENCE AWARENESS MONTH

WHEREAS, domestic violence impacts women, men, and children of every age, background, and belief, and is rooted in a pattern of control in an intimate relationship where one person uses coercion and violence to gain power over his or her partner;

WHEREAS, physical marks and scars are often the most obvious signs of harm caused by domestic violence, however the extent of the pain goes much deeper and can impact ones mental, physical, emotional, and financial health;

WHEREAS, the national average shows that more than three individuals are murdered every day by an intimate partner, and in 2017, the North Carolina Coalition Against Domestic Violence reported that 79 women, men, and children were murdered in domestic violence-related homicides in our state; with Greensboro reporting 1 domestic violence related death;

WHEREAS, locally, Family Service of the Piedmont responded to approximately 3,100 crisis line calls in the last fiscal year and the Greensboro Police Department reported over 13,000 calls for service involving domestic and/or sexual violence;

WHEREAS, children who witness domestic violence are more likely to transmit violent behavior from one generation to the next and are more likely to exhibit behavioral and physical health problems;

WHEREAS, in a community partnership, the Guilford County Family Justice Center (FJC) in Greensboro has successfully brought together 15 agencies in one place to provide victims with easier access to comprehensive resources through a coordinated collaborative effort. This partnership provides hope and healing to victims of abuse and works diligently to hold offenders accountable;

WHEREAS, since opening the Guilford County Family Justice Center in mid-June of 2015, over 20,000 citizens in crisis have been served, and Greensboro has seen about an 88% reduction in domestic violence related homicides;

WHEREAS, by working together and promoting awareness in the community we can restore hope, stop the violence, and make our community safer for everyone.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF GREENSBORO:

That it does hereby declares the month of October 2018, as "DOMESTIC VIOLENCE AWARENESS MONTH" and urges citizens to increase their awareness and education of this destructive force which deeply affects many families in our State and local community each year, and to become part of the efforts to stop violence in families.

(Signed) Sharon Hightower

Councilmember Abuzuaiter left the meeting at 6:25 p.m. and returned at 6:28 p.m.

Robert Foxworth, 2506 Pinecroft Road voiced concern with the use of the CEU to suppress human rights; with the militarized police force; referenced police directives regarding public order; the needs of the community; the need for accountability of Police Chief Scott; emphasized that government entities should be servants to the people; spoke to crimes against humanity; militarized weapons; requested that the CEU be disbanded; and that the City do away with militarized weapons.

Mayor Pro-Tem Johnson left the meeting at 7:30 p.m. and returned at 7:33 p.m.

LaTonya Boubacar, 3803 Holts Chapel Road stated she was a victim of the City; had recently been evicted from her residence; expressed the issues she was dealing with being homeless; and stated she had reached out to members of Council.

Councilmember Hightower confirmed she had responded to Ms. Boubacar.

Ryan Tardiff, 830 West Market Street referenced speaking at a previous meeting regarding housing issues and the proposed housing ordinance; outlined what he felt needed to be addressed; requested a public meeting take place to discuss the issues; voiced support for disbanding the CEU; and concern with actions of the GPD.

Mitchell Fryer, 3404 Shaker Drive spoke to charges brought against and actions of a Klux Klux Klan (KKK) member; voiced concern with the member becoming a Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) informant; not serving prison time; and made reference to current GPD officers working with the federal government.

Councilmember Wells asked if Officers Flowers and Finch were currently employed by GPD; and inquired where the speakers had obtained the information.

Police Chief Scott confirmed that the officers were City employees; spoke to their actions being within the law; emphasized that the GPD was a model agency in the state; was transparent; spoke to the need to maintain relationships to ensure people's safety; and stated that some of the statements made by the speaker were incorrect. Police Chief Scott confirmed that he was familiar with the article the speaker was referring to; confirmed that there were certain topics he could not discuss publically due to security reasons; spoke to first amendment rights; and voiced that officers worked hard to protect the citizens of Greensboro.

Councilmember Kennedy requested clarification.

Police Chief Scott responded that GPD had several officers that were part of the federal partnership system; and performed a multitude of things that he was not at liberty to discuss.

Councilmember Kennedy confirmed that Police Chief Scott could not answer specific questions.

Police Chief Scott responded in the affirmative; and referenced inaccurate information that had been provided.

Councilmember Wells expressed respect for the officers.

Councilmember Hightower expressed that people's perceptions were their realities; emphasized that people were bringing forth their concerns; spoke to the history of incidents that had occurred; stated she realized the City had a police force to protect and serve; verified she wanted to make sure they were doing that in a respectful manner; spoke to her concerns regarding the CEU; and to letting officers do what they wanted to.

Police Chief Scott explained the creation of the CEU when the Democratic National Convention had taken place in Charlotte; outlined the training; stated he supported the way the unit responded; spoke to the event that took place in Charlottesville; explained the process for using pepper spray during a protest; the reason for interlocal agreements; voiced concern with a few individuals taking the issue in a different direction; referenced personnel law; and emphasized the need for a CEU.

Councilmember Outling reminded Council of the format of the Community Forum meetings; spoke to addressing Council concerns at work sessions; expressed concern that people may get the wrong impression when only certain topics were open for discussion at these meeting; and emphasized that discussion of issues would be more productive at a work session rather than engaging individual requests.

Mayor Vaughan stated she had asked Police Chief Scott to speak at the meeting to allow the public to hear his comments as the meeting was televised.

Councilmember Outling spoke to why Police Chief Scott might feel compelled to speak; and requested that staff speak at work sessions going forward.

Mayor Vaughan explained why she had asked Police Chief Scott to be in attendance; spoke to the outcome in Chapel Hill when the GPD was not present; and to the need for interlocal agreements to ensure public safety.

Councilmember Hoffmann referenced items in Democracy Greensboro's platform; explained where the equipment for the CEU was housed; when and where the equipment would be used; stated that the equipment was on hand to keep the City's citizens protected and safe; and voiced disagreement with some of the recommendations.

Councilmember Abuzuaiter stated Council gave the speakers from the floor respect when they were talking; asked that the audience do the same when Council spoke; explained an incident at an event when she had reached out to police; spoke to the high rating of the GPD nationally; and challenged those present to attend the Police Citizens Academy.

Councilmember Hoffmann left the meeting at 8:05 p.m. and returned at 8:07 p.m.

Marcus Hyde, 305 Tate Street voiced appreciation for the resolution honoring Mr. Beveridge; concern with housing; expressed that the Housing Coalition had not endorsed the proposed ordinance; referenced comments made by Police Chief Scott; requested that the CEU be disbanded; expressed concern with the organizational makeup; emphasized that GPD would not reform itself; explained changes people were asking for; and referenced the loss of Mr. Smith on September 8th.
