

ORDINANCE DESIGNATING THE HACKNEY-FOUST HOUSE
A GUILFORD COUNTY HISTORIC LANDMARK

WHEREAS, the Hackney-Foust House, 921 Spring Garden Street, Tax Parcel Number 6127, is owned by Barefoot Development Group, LLC. It is a two-story wood-sided, frame house located in the College Hill Historic District;

WHEREAS, all the prerequisites to the adoption of the ordinance, as prescribed by Chapter 160A, Article 19, Part 3C (now codified as Chapter 160D, Article 9, Part 4) of the North Carolina General Statutes, have been met;

WHEREAS, the Guilford County Historic Preservation Commission has submitted a report, which is incorporated herein by reference, and recommended in a public hearing that the property described below be designated as a Historic Landmark;

WHEREAS, appropriate notice has been given of the public hearing as required by law;

WHEREAS, the Guilford County Historic Preservation Commission finds that the property described herein is of historical, architectural, educational, and/or cultural significance, and its preservation should be encouraged so as to safeguard the heritage of the City and County and to promote the use and conservation for the education, pleasure and enrichment of the residents of the City and County; and

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT ORDAINED BY THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF GREENSBORO:

1. The City Council of the City of Greensboro accepts the findings of the Guilford County Historic Preservation Commission and adopts the recommendation of the Commission for the preservation of the subject property by the authority set forth in Chapter 160D, Article 9, Part 4 of the North Carolina General Statutes and local ordinance adopted pursuant thereto.
2. The Hackney-Foust House is an excellent example of transitional Queen Anne/Colonial Revival residential architecture in Greensboro. It is also historically significant because of its association with Julius Isaac Foust and the history of UNCG. Foust, who lived here for thirty-nine years, was the second president of the Woman's College of the University of North Carolina. Several teachers at the college lived in the house as boarders.
3. The designation includes the entire exterior of the house.
4. The Guilford County Landmark plaque shall be installed on the property and such sign shall indicate that the property has been designated as a Historic Landmark. Details of the display of the plaque are to be approved by the Guilford County Historic Preservation Commission before installation.
5. The procedures provided by law, including waiting period, shall be observed prior to demolition, alteration, remodeling or removal of the designated property. This includes the process of obtaining a Certificate of Appropriateness before making any changes to the property.

6. A certified copy of this ordinance is to be appropriately recorded with the Register of Deeds, the Guilford County Tax Department and City of Greensboro Engineering and Inspections Department in accordance with provisions of Chapter 160D, Article 9, Part 4 of the North Carolina General Statutes and the local ordinance adopted pursuant thereto.
7. This ordinance shall be effective from and after its adoption.
