

The STPAC CMAR Evaluation & Ranking Committee included the following:

Committee Consultant and Moderator, local Architect Larry Robbs, AIA, the Managing Partner of the W-S Architectural Firm Walter, Robbs, Callahan & Peirce, whose experience as the first Architect in the State of NC to implement a public CMAR Project was extremely helpful.

Gwen Carter as the City's MWBE Coordinator observed and monitored the Committee's objective to insure CMAR MWBE participation in this Project.

Two representatives of the Private Donor's Building Committee:
Local Attorney Kathy Manning, Esq. and Community Foundation President, Walker Sanders, both of whom lead the extraordinary efforts to raise over $35M to make this Project a reality.

PTI Executive Director Kevin Baker, a licensed Professional Engineer whom has overseen over $500M in construction projects at the PTI airport.

John Davenport, a licensed Professional Engineer and owner of Davenport Engineering, who's firm is a key member of the STPAC Architect & Engineering Design Team.

City Building, Engineering & Inspections Department Head, Kenny McDowell, a licensed Professional Engineer.

Coliseum Complex Maintenance Superintendent, Mike Perdue, a North Carolina Class A licensed Electrical Contractor.

Assistant City Attorney James Dickens, author of the STPAC RFQ and MWBE Protégé participation program.

Jorge Quintal, a licensed Professional Engineer, who as the Associate Chancellor of Facilities for UNCG has overseen close to a Billion Dollars in campus Construction projects.

James "Smitty" Smith, Owner and Operator of 11 area McDonald's restaurants and who has personally experienced overseeing the construction of 16 McDonald's Restaurants in his career.

Mo Milani, and Electrical Engineering Graduate of NC A&T University serves as the EVP of the Koury Hospitality Corporation and has overseen over $100M in Koury construction projects.

Coliseum Complex Managing Director Matt Brown