Amendment to Generalized Future Land Use Plan (GFLUM):

- a. CP-18-05: 905, 907, 909, 911, 913, 1001 and 1003 Ridgecrest Drive; 909 and 911 Woodbrook Avenue, from Low Residential to Institutional, 6.75 acres. (COMMENTS)

Jeff Sovich, Senior Planner, presented the details of the proposed Amendment from the Low Residential designation to the Institutional designation, noting that the request in conjunction with three associated rezoning requests, Z-18-06-008, Z-18-06-009 and Z-18-06-010. The Comprehensive Plan defines the existing Low Residential designation as 3-5 dwelling units per acre, including both predominantly single-family neighborhoods and other compatible housing types that can be accommodated within this density range. The Comprehensive Plan defines the proposed Institutional designation as applying to university and college campuses, major medical and health care concentrations and similar large scale institutional activity centers. He noted the site is adjacent to large areas currently designated as Institutional to both the east and west, and used aerial photos to show the pattern of development surrounding the site. The Board was provided the opportunity to make comments on the amendment.

Comments:

Planning Board members expressed concern about adjacent single-family residential areas becoming divided by the proposed change and that access to a more comprehensive long-term view of the applicant's intentions might help to allay those concerns. The Board also noted that Friends Homes have been good neighbors and that the request seems logical and is congruent with existing development in the area. The Board further commented that Friends Homes is an institutional use primarily for elderly residents, and with an aging population, such facilities need to be able to expand their services. Finally, the Board stated that the subject site currently offers no reasonable direction for future growth; the requested change is a logical way to do so.
